

timelyMD

Telehealth for Students

The Future of Student Affairs

Student-affairs professionals have long been on the front lines of campus life. The pandemic has added new layers of complexity to an already diverse field that encompasses many aspects of campus life. On Wednesday, March 3, for a virtual forum hosted by The Chronicle of Higher Education to discuss the current roles and responsibilities of professionals working in student affairs to meet the needs of students where they are now.

REGISTER FOR THE WEBINAR

Best Ways to Optimize Your Ed Student Services Budget

The challenges presented by COVID-19 increased the financial decision-making that colleges and universities face; unfortunately, the need for student services has also increased due to the pandemic. Learn how you can stretch the most of your budget to help your students succeed and thrive.

LEARN THESE BUDGET STRETCHING TIPS

Digital Mental Health: Here to Stay

At the recent Active Minds Annual Conference, students and higher ed professionals came together to share how to better the mental health landscape for students. In this panel discussion with TimelyMD's Chief Strategy Officer Chris Clark and other digital experts, you'll learn how digital services are being used to meet the mental health needs of college students.

WATCH THE PANEL DISCUSSION

---

Ready to help students thrive?

Book time with me if you are interested in a campus assessment or to learn how to help students launch a TimelyMD telehealth program at your school.

GET STARTED NOW

TIMELY.MD

1315 S. Adams St. • Fort Worth, TX 76104 • United States View this email in your browser

